This 520 Fuse Block uses the same Wheel Horse Housing part# 67-7160, but we use heavier wire and connectors in effort to make this the last time this repair will be made. The lighter wire and connectors were part of the problem with the original fuse blocks which caused the over heating which made for a bad connection.

The Toro 520xi garden tractor lawn mower uses a Kohler Command engine to power it. This overhead valve engine uses an air cooling system. It utilizes a dry type air filter to prevent dust and other small particulate matter from entering into the combustion chamber when the engine is firing. The engine powering the 520XI produces 20 hp.
